Rice, Matthew. "Humboldt County Shuns Neighbors Who Seek To Form 49th State."Humboldt Standard 26 Nov. 1941: n. pag. Print.

This is a primary source which is a newspaper article. I learned that Humboldt County did not really like the idea of a 49th state in California.

Rock, James. "The State of Jefferson". N.p.: n.p., 1985. Print.

This primary source shows the story of the State of Jefferson. It had also told me that this state was approved but then Peral Harbor had happened. This had told me that it was more than 50 years that they had not had passable roads.

Smith, Michael L. "Hardly Jackassable": The State of Jefferson and Regional Secession Movements in California. N.p.: n.p., n.d. Print.

This is a primary source and it is a book. I learned that people protested in Yreka to have a State of Jefferson.

The State of Jefferson. Jefferson Public Radio. Jefferson Public Radio, 2014. Web. 19 Jan. 2017.

This is a video type of primary source. I have learned that there would be no taxes in the State of Jefferson. They would deal with that kind of stuff with Casinos and ect. There are 7 men and 1 woman. One of the men are giving the woman a peice of paper. There is a sign that says "Stop State of Jefferson" and then the sign has two x's and then at the bottom it says "Boarder partol". Digital image.
